Definitions of Roles

Approver (if relevant): This person reviews and approves the electronic document but does not sign it. The approver contacts RCO if corrections are needed. There may be multiple approvers.

Signer (required): This person must be the same person identified as the authorized signer in the Applicant Resolution/Authorization. The signer will enter data such as title, date, agency, and name, and is required to sign the document officially with an electronic signature. There typically is only one signer but if more are needed, please indicate that in the comment box below.

List the name and role of each person involved in the routing of the agreement and any amendments in the table below. Each person should be listed in the order of that person's role in the routing process.
